ABOUT ME

I am a second year student at New Bulgarian University, majoring in Informatics. My interests mainly fall into the IT field. What draws me is the process of developing websites and how they are made. I can work in a team and quickly understand the given task and in case of a problem I can find a quick solution.
I have very good basic knowledge in Java (OOP, polymorphism, inheritance, etc.) and basic SQL. I also have good knowledge in developing websites with HTML and CSS and a little bit of JavaScript.
